

A modern living room interior featuring a large, modular wardrobe unit. The unit has a combination of light-colored wood-grain panels, dark wood-grain panels, and a central black panel that serves as a TV mount. The unit is illuminated from within, and the top section has a marble-like pattern. In the foreground, there is a glass coffee table with books and a small vase, and a white armchair with a brown blanket. The room has large windows on the left and right sides, and a small side table with a lamp on the left.
